Student Transition Report

Prepared for ALEX CHEN Based on 35 questionnaire statements

AT A GLANCE

You explore your options with curiosity and care.

You like to understand your choices before you commit, and you care about doing what feels right and contributing to the people around you. Those are strong foundations for a big transition. Your next step is turning interest into action: asking for the information or support you need, and taking one practical step toward a direction you choose.

YOUR LEADING STRENGTHS

Insight & Curiosity
You want to learn about your options before you choose.

Values Alignment & Integrity
Your choices reflect what matters to you.

Shared Contribution & Team Impact
You contribute to the groups you are part of.

YOUR GROWTH EDGES

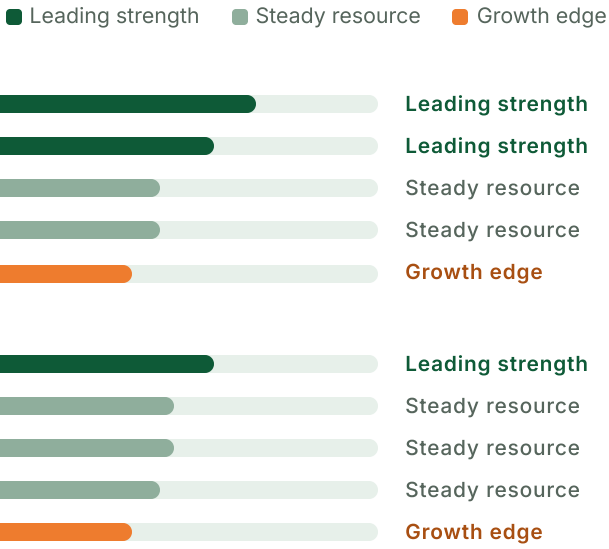

Self-Confidence & Strategic Direction
Trusting yourself to plan and take the next step.

Communication Clarity & Adaptation
Asking clearly for the information or help you need.

YOUR 90 DAY DEVELOPMENT FOCUS

Research one next stage option, ask for the information or support you need, and complete a practical step toward a chosen direction.

Your profile across the ten areas

✓ Answer check passed. Your answers vary enough across the statements to give a meaningful picture.

Bars show how strongly you endorsed each area, compared with your own other answers. They are not a test score, a rating, or a comparison with other people.

HOW YOUR AREAS WORK TOGETHER

Your strengths are the way into your growth edges.

Your report looks at five Internal Patterns, what you bring, and five Behavioral Expressions, how it shows up. Growth usually comes from connecting a strength you already have with an action others can see.

WHAT YOU BRING · INTERNAL PATTERNS

Stronger agreement overall

HOW IT SHOWS UP · BEHAVIORAL EXPRESSION

More mixed answers

Your pattern: your interest and values are strong. Turning them into a clear question and a first step is where your 90 day plan focuses.

1

CURIOSITY → SELF-CONFIDENCE

Research builds the confidence to act.

Pick one option and learn three specific facts about it. Each answer you find makes the next step feel more possible.

2

VALUES → COMMUNICATION

Knowing what matters makes it easier to ask.

When you know why an option interests you, you can explain it to a teacher, counselor, or employer and ask a focused question.

3

SHARED CONTRIBUTION → SELF-CONFIDENCE

What you give to a group shows what you can do.

Think about a time you helped a team or class succeed. Use that example as evidence that you can handle a new challenge.

HOW TO READ THE LABELS IN THIS REPORT

Leading strength

Steady resource
Reliable parts of how you work that support your plan.

Growth edge
Where your answers were most mixed. The best place to practice.

Labels compare your own answers with each other. They describe where to focus, not how you compare with anyone else.

WHERE IT HELPS YOU

You make choices based on real information, not just first impressions.

WHERE IT CAN HOLD YOU BACK

Researching can start to feel like progress, even when no decision or step has been taken.

TRY THIS WEEK

Choose one option and write three questions you still have and one person who could answer them. Ask one question this week.

REFLECT

Your dividend: the return on your insight

Insight pays off when it changes what you do. Here is what you put in, what you can expect to change, and how you will see the return.
